

Knoll Design and Specification Update Report for January 2025

General Notes:

The January release will include new pricing that goes into effect on February 3rd, 2025. For Office products the scope of the increase includes a 1% increase to all veneer grades, and a few select products in Dividends.

KnollStudio pricing has been transformed to follow a module pricing approach. This impacts many products, including all split upholstered products, products with base finish options such as Polished Aluminum, Stainless Steel, Bronze and Gold Plated. This change will also impact historical pricing for KnollStudio. All attempts have been made to ensure historical pricing will be equal to or lower than the current historical pricing. Split upholstered products will no longer adhere to the rule of the highest grade selected between the seat, back and arm.

The new pricing is being made available to support the ability to quote orders expected to be placed after the February 3rd effective date. For orders being placed prior to that date be sure to validate the correct pricing has been applied. Below is the new price zone mapping.
